

HIGH ZERO 2004: MAIN PERFORMANCES+ SOUND INSTALLATIONS

Friday September 17th
- Monday October 7th

For the past three years, the High Zero Festival has expanded beyond pure improvised music to include a rich program of gallery sound installations, which have been highly stimulating. Here the emphasis is on unusual environments and experiences which require special preparation and represent new collaborations or a single individual's vision. This year's festival presents three original works:
